

OUTLAW NOTES

MIDNIGHT NOTES # 8

Midnight Notes #8

$2.50

OUTLAW NOTES

| | |
|---|----|
| A Conceptualization of the Law in the Manifold of Work | 1 |
| POLICING US | 9 |
| Prison Work Notes | 17 |
| The Delivery of Newgate | 18 |
| Substruction in the Class/Room Struggle | 27 |
| Negri Beyond Marx & Marx Beyond Midnight | 32 |
| A Lesbian Shaggy Dog Story | 37 |

Midnight Notes

Box 204
Jamaica Plain, MA
02130 U.S.A.

August 1985

COVER
Sharon Dunn
From Blue Monday in Boston's Financial
District, 4/29/85:
Against Capital,
For Us,
With Maypole

SUBSCRIPTIONS

U.S. & CANADA: U.S. $7.00
Elsewhere: U.S. $10.00
for three issues.

PRICE

U.S. & Canada: U.S. $2.50
Elsewhere: U.S. $3.50
If ordered from Radical Science Journal,
E2 (RSJ, 26 Freegrove Rd., London, N7 9RQ, England)

BACK ISSUES

#7: Same price as #8

All other back issues are only available in photocopy for $4.00 U.S. (U.S. & Canada, $4.50 U.S. for elsewhere):

- #1 Strange Victories
- #2 No Future Notes
- #3 The Work Energy Crisis and the Apocalypse
- #4 Space Notes
- #5 Computer State Notes
- #6 Posthumous Notes

We are listed in the Alternative Press
Index, Box 33109, Baltimore, MD 21218

PLEASE OBTAIN AND READ:

Processed World, 55 Sutter St., San Francisco, CA 94104
Radical Science Journal, 26 Freegrove Rd.,
London, N7 9RQ, England

bolo'bolo, Autonomedia, Box 568, Brooklyn,
N.Y., 11211 $3.95

In the past, each time we've said what our next issue will be, we've changed our minds before we got to press. However, we are quite sure that our next issue will be on development and underdevelopment, and that it will be available before the end of 1985.

John Farmer's First Lesson Solidarity, September 2, 1916

